

Recent Launches:

The
MAGNUS PRO
The Third Generation Planning Machine

The Magnus Pro signifies a planning machine that combines ultimate performance with unique design ever encountered. An ultra advanced version of Magnus series planners. It stands for synergy of innovative facilities in all key aspects of a planning machine. The ultimate performance is powered by revolutionary all side mapping technology, advanced machine vision technology, easy to deploy inclusion placement facility & most reliable fiber laser marking. The Magnus Pro caters the cutting edge rough planning facility invoking the third generation of planning machine.

The
MAGNUS
LITE
Revolution for Small Goods Planning

The Magnus Lite is an impressively advanced rough analysis & planning machine designed for small goods. It is supported by the Magnus Rough software application that aids for maximum yield. Magnus Lite engineers have clubbed rough mapping, standard & computer assisted manual planning and laser marking facilities together to leverage exceptional performance. The Magnus Lite comes with an upgraded overall speed for faster production crucial for small goods. Utilizing Magnus Lite productivity can be increased productivity up to 10%.